- Fundraising

- Recap: Staff Appreciation Week

- It was a very successful Staff Appreciation Week
- Breakfast (parent and Starbucks donations)
- Luncheon - It was our first year doing Spartans
- Gift Cards - $5 Target GCs, Chik Fil and Papa Johns for all staff, got additional donations for larger gift cards that were raffled off

- Spring Carnival

- Excited to see the community back after 2 years
- Everyone is excited about the Dunk Tank
- We will not have the opportunity to have food trucks due to the reschedule, but we will have pizza, Ritas, concessions, and a Student Council bake sale
- We have a great sensory room this year
- No bounce houses (due to COVID), but we will have an inflatable obstacle course
- Thanks to Sarah for organization a large group of volunteers from Robinson

- 2022-23 PTO Board

- We still do not have a full PTO Board; We will be doing a hard push for volunteers; It is a great experience, we work together to make these things happen; If we move into next year with so many vacant positions, we may be limited in what we are able to do
- Can these positions be split into Co-Leads? Yes; we all share the workload

- New Business

5 minutes

- Ausome Event Recap
 - Families had a great time; The teaches and the team did a great job; Would love to use the popcorn machine in the future; In the future we'd love to do something like this during Inclusive Schools Week in December; Mr. Birge supports this idea
